EXPERIENCE

Renegade Goods— Co-Owner & Designer

2017-Present

We built our business around the Glowforge laser cutter that we purchased. I have designed, built, and finished the majority of our products. I built the website and run our social media account.

Bad Audiobooks Podcast— Creator & Producer

2019-Present

I created this podcast to entertain and educate my audience about literature. I run the social media for it, edit the episodes, and upload them to our RSS feed. Our audience is growing and ardent for our show.

Soylent— Contract Content Strategist

2017

Planned FAQ project, researched article information to ensure accuracy, created new categories, and planned out the project from start to finish.

Sovereign Health Group— Web Producer/Editor

December 2014 - October 2016

Oversaw social media calendar and posts to ensure a high level of quality. Wrote and edited articles, oversaw the creation of monthly newsletters, planned yearly content calendars, and pivoted team from content creation to a digital newsroom.

Cadenza Interactive— Narrative Designer/Writer

February 2012 - November 2013

Collaborated with the project director and wrote the entire single-player campaign, wrote all the dialogue, directed voice actors, grew social media channels organically through contests and partnerships with manufacturers, and implemented triggers in a custom game engine.

Blizzard Entertainment— Game Master

September 2010 - February 2012

Interacted with customers to resolve issues in-game, created workarounds for bugged out game content, and wrote for a monthly newsletter.
